LINEUP FOR 2025 WEST SHORE BANK RHYTHM AND DUNES FUNDRAISER CONCERT SERIES

LUDINGTON, MI – West Shore Bank is excited to announce the lineup for the 2025 Rhythm and Dunes fundraising community concert series taking place on Saturday, July 26, and Saturday, August 2.

The headliners are Monsters of Yacht (July 26), a premier tribute to the yacht rock genre performing from coast to coast and Klay N the Mud (August 2), featuring an unforgettable mix of pop, rock, classic rock and top 40 hits. Both free shows are set to take place at 6 p.m. at Waterfront Park in Downtown Ludington. Pre-concert Performances will include the Mason County Central and Mason County Eastern Band on July 26th and the Ludington High School Marching Band on August 2nd.

Monsters of Yacht® from Nashville, TN, delivers rocking recreations of songs from a wide range of artists. From Christopher Cross to Doobie Brothers, TOTO to Player, Hall & Oates to Steely Dan, Gerry Rafferty to Boz Scaggs, Bee Gees to Little River Band and more, the band's diverse song selections are sure to excite any music enthusiast.

Klay N' The Mud, formed in 2020, is a dynamic five-piece supergroup Pop Rock Band featuring musicians from award-winning groups around Michigan. With an unforgettable mix of pop, rock, classic rock, and top 40, Klay N' The Mud delivers a crowd-pleasing performance with five-part harmonies, soaring male and female vocals, keys, and three guitarists to complete a blend of versatile musical capability.

Food vendors will be available starting at 5 p.m. and will include the following:

- Krave
- Lakeside Wiener Wagon
- Cluck Bucket
- Lela's Original Kettle Corn

The concert series is entirely planned, organized, and underwritten by West Shore Bank and its employees. The Rhythm & Dunes concerts offer a great opportunity for local families to enjoy free music and local food vendors while helping raise funds for the local high school Band programs.
